District Council of Mount Remarkable

MEDIA RELEASE**

Council engaged outside independent consultants to review its staffing structure and has adopted the reviews recommendations for a new structure. As a result, the position of Deputy CEO has been abolished and Jessie has elected to accept the severance payment under her employment contract. The Council has agreed to reimburse Jessie for retraining and outplacement services.

Council acknowledges Jessie's almost 7 year service, thanks her for that service and wishes her all the best in the future.
