The hire is subject to:

- The hirer agreeing to the Conditions of the permit as contained herein
- The hirer paying the prescribed fee
- The hirer providing a copy of all appropriate insurances as required

Conditions of hire:

- Where bins are hired for a community event, no charge will apply. Where bins are hired for a private event, the hirer will be charged a 'Service Charge' for the waste collection service via tax invoice. Refer to Council's Fees & Charges List for the most up-to-date hire fees.
- This form must be returned to the Council at least two weeks before the date of event. Please note if less than two weeks' notice is given there is no guarantee the bins will be available.
- Bins must be cleaned and returned to the Wilmington Oval grandstand storage shed, in the same condition as when they were taken. A key is available for access to the storage shed at SJ & JA Wild's General Store.
- Council will confirm the location where bins will be collected from (this may vary from the preferred location above).
- Bins will need to be placed in one location on the day of collection (i.e. bins are not to be left on kerbside on a weekend for collection later in the week). Please refer to Council's website www.mtr.sa.gov.au for the Waste Management calendar.
- If bins are damaged or not returned, Council will issue the hirer a tax invoice for recovery of the cost of the bins. Refer to Council's Fees & Charges List for the most up-to-date fees applicable.
