1.0 Background

Section 41 of the Local Government Act 1999 provides that:

- (1) A council may establish committees.
- (2) A committee may, according to a determination of the council (and subject to the operation of this Act), be established—
 - (a) to assist the council in the performance of its functions;
 - (b) to inquire into and report to the council on matters within the ambit of the council's responsibilities;
 - (c) to provide advice to the council;
 - (d) to exercise, perform or discharge delegated powers, functions or duties.
- (3) The membership of a committee will be determined by the council and may consist of, or include, persons who are not members of the council.
- (4) The council must appoint a person as the presiding member of a committee, or make provision for the appointment of a presiding member.
- (5) A member of a committee holds office at the pleasure of the council.
- (6) The council may appoint the principal member of the council as an ex officio member of a committee (but in such a case the principal member will not be taken to be included in the membership of the committee unless actually present at a meeting of the committee).
- (7) A committee may establish a subcommittee to assist it in a matter.
- (8) A council must, when establishing a committee, determine the reporting and other accountability requirements that are to apply in relation to the committee.
- (9) A committee that is performing a regulatory activity of the council must report to the council on its activities at least quarterly.
- (10) The establishment of a committee does not derogate from the power of the council to act in a matter.
- (11) No act or proceeding of a council committee is invalid by reason of—
 - (a) a vacancy or vacancies in the membership of the committee; or
 - (b) a defect in the election or appointment of a member or members of the committee; or
 - (c) the fact that the election of a member or members of the committee is subsequently declared void by a court of competent jurisdiction.

- (12) No civil liability attaches to a member of a committee for an honest act or omission in the exercise, performance or discharge, or purported exercise, performance or discharge, of the member's or committee's powers, functions or duties.
- (13) A liability that would, but for subsection (12), attach to a member of a committee attaches instead to the council.
