PART 1 - PRELIMINARY

1. Title

- 1.1 This document is titled the District Council of Mount Remarkable Code of Practice – Meeting Procedures at Council and Council Committee Meetings.

2. Commencement

- 2.1 These procedures commence on the date this document is endorsed by at least two-thirds of the members of the council entitled to vote on the resolution.
- 2.2 Refer to the last page of this document for a detailed history of its adoption and subsequent reviews, as well as other document control information.

3. Interpretation

- 3.1 The role of a council is to manage its local area by acting as an informed representative and responsible decision-maker in the best interests of its community. Council can only make decisions and act through a majority vote of the Council (or Committee). The effectiveness of Council and Council Committee Meetings directly contributes towards accountability to the community.
- 3.2 Council meeting procedures are largely determined by the Local Government (Procedures at Meetings) Regulations 2013 (the Regulations). In addition to the requirements of the Regulations, this Code of Practice identifies a number of discretionary procedures adopted by Council for Council and Council Committee meetings.

3.3 Definitions:

- 3.3.1 In this Code of Practice, the following definitions apply unless the contrary intention appears-

Act means the Local Government Act 1999;

clear days—see sub-clauses 3.3.2 and 3.3.3;

deputation means a person or group of persons who wish to appear personally before a council or council committee in order to address the council or committee (as the case may be) on a particular matter;

formal motion means a motion—

- (a) that the meeting proceed to the next business; or
- (b) that the question be put; or
- (c) that the question lie on the table; or
- (d) that the question be adjourned; or
- (e) that the meeting be adjourned¹;

Guiding Principles—see regulation 4;

member means a member of the council or council committee (as the case may be);

point of order means a point raised to draw attention to an alleged breach of the Act or these regulations in relation to the proceedings of a meeting;

presiding member means the person who is the presiding member of a council or council committee (as the case may be) and includes any person who is presiding at a particular meeting;

written notice includes a notice given in a manner or form determined by the council.

- 3.3.2 In the calculation of clear days in relation to the giving of notice before a meeting—
- i. the day on which the notice is given, and the day on which the meeting occurs, will not be taken into account; and
 - ii. Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays will be taken into account.
- 3.3.3 For the purposes of the calculation of clear days under sub-clause 3.3.2, if a notice is given after 5 p.m. on a day, the notice will be taken to have been given on the next day.
- 3.3.4 For the purposes of these regulations, a vote on whether leave of the meeting is granted may be conducted by a show of hands (but nothing in this subregulation prevents a division from being called in relation to the vote).

Note—1 See regulation 12 for specific provisions about formal motions.

4. Guiding principles

Council's approach to the conduct of its meetings adopts the Guiding Principles contained within the Local Government (Procedures at Meetings) Regulations 2013 which state:

- 4.1 Procedures should be fair and contribute to open, transparent and informed decision making
- 4.2 Procedures should encourage appropriate community participation in the affairs of the council
- 4.3 Procedures should reflect levels of formality appropriate to the nature and scope of responsibilities exercised at the meeting
- 4.4 Procedures should be sufficiently certain to give the community and decision-makers confidence in the deliberations undertaken at the meeting.

- 12.2 The notice of motion must be given to the chief executive officer at least 7 clear days before the date of the meeting at which the motion is to be moved.

- 12.3 A motion the effect of which, if carried, would be to revoke or amend a resolution passed since the last general election of the council must be brought by written notice of motion.

- 12.4 If a motion under sub-clause 12.3 is lost, a motion to the same effect cannot be brought—

12.4.1 until after the expiration of 12 months; or

12.4.2 until after the next general election, whichever is the sooner.

- 12.5 Subject to the Act and these regulations, a member may also bring forward any business by way of a motion without notice.

- 12.6 The presiding member may refuse to accept a motion without notice if, after taking into account the Guiding Principles, he or she considers that the motion should be dealt with by way of a written notice of motion.

12.6.1 For clarity, a motion without notice will not be accepted, where in the opinion of the presiding member, the motion relates to a significant issue or substantive information is required in order to make an informed decision on the motion. Such issues should be provided as written notices of motion.

- 12.8 A motion will lapse if it is not seconded at the appropriate time.

- 12.9.2 If the motion is seconded, the common practice of the meeting will be to put the motion without further debate/discussion unless there is a speaker against the motion.
- 12.9.3 The common practice of the meeting will be to alternate speakers for and against the motion until the debate is complete.

- 12.9.4 A member seconding a motion may elect to either speak to the motion at the time of seconding or may reserve their right to speak to the motion until a later stage of the debate. At the time of seconding the motion, they must seek the approval of the presiding member to do so. Where a member seconds a motion and reserves their right to speak, they will not be considered to have spoken to the motion. Where a member seconds a motion, and has reserved their right to speak to the motion at a later stage, they may not move or second an amendment to the motion.

12.10 A member may only speak once to a motion except—

- 12.10.1 to provide an explanation in regard to a material part of his or her speech, but not so as to introduce any new matter; or

- 12.14 If the formal motion is—
- 12.14.1 that the meeting proceed to the next business, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is, in the case of an amendment, that the amendment lapses and the meeting proceeds with the consideration of the motion before the meeting without further reference to the amendment and, in the case of a motion, that the motion lapses and the meeting proceeds to the next item of business; or

- 12.14.2 that the question be put, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that debate is terminated and the question put to the vote by the presiding member without further debate; or
- 12.14.3 that the question lie on the table, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the meeting immediately moves to the next item of business and the question can then only be retrieved at a later time by resolution (and, if so retrieved, debate is then resumed at the point of interruption); or
- 12.14.4 that the question be adjourned, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the question is disposed of for the time being but debate can be resumed at the later time (at the point of interruption); or
- 12.14.5 that the meeting be adjourned, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the meeting is brought to an end immediately without the consideration of further business.
- 12.15 If seconded, a formal motion takes precedence and will be put by the presiding member without discussion unless the motion is for an adjournment (in which case discussion may occur (but only occur) on the details for resumption).
- 12.16 A formal motion does not constitute an amendment to a substantive motion.
- 12.17 If a formal motion is lost—
- 12.17.1 the meeting will be resumed at the point at which it was interrupted; and
- 12.17.2 if the formal motion was put during debate (and not at the end of debate) on a question, then a similar formal motion (ie a motion to the same effect) cannot be put until at least 1 member has spoken on the question.
- 12.18 A formal motion for adjournment must include the reason for the adjournment and the details for resumption.
- 12.19 Any question that lies on the table as a result of a successful formal motion under sub-clause 12.14.3 lapses at the next general election.
- 12.20 The chief executive officer must report on each question that lapses under sub-clause 12.19 to the council at the first ordinary meeting of the council after the general election.
- 12.21 Sub-clauses (12.9), (12.10) and (12.11) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6.

- 13.1 A member who has not spoken to a motion at an earlier stage of the debate may move or second an amendment to the motion.

- 13.2 An amendment will lapse if it is not seconded at the appropriate time.
- 13.3 A person who moves or seconds an amendment (and, if he or she chooses to do so, speaks to the amendment) will, in so doing, be taken to have spoken to the motion to which the amendment relates.

- 16.2 The presiding member will, in taking a vote, ask for the votes of those members in favour of the question and then for the votes of those members against the question (and may do so as often as is necessary to enable him or her to determine the result of the voting), and will then declare the outcome.
- 16.3 A person who is not in his or her seat is not permitted to vote -
