Requests for Access to a Council's Documents

- Applicants need to provide sufficient information to enable the correct document/s to be identified, though Council will help you with your application.
- If you are seeking documents relating to your personal affairs Council may request proof of identity.
- If you are seeking a document(s) on behalf of another person relating to their personal affairs, Council may ask you to submit a consent form signed by that person.
- A request will be dealt with as soon as practicable (and, in any case, within 30 days) after it is received.
- Council, on receiving an FOI application, may assist the applicant to direct the application to another agency or transfer the application to another agency as appropriate.

Forms of Access

Various forms of access are available depending on the form in which the information is stored. They include:

- Inspection of documents
- Copy of documents
- Hearing and/or viewing audio and/or video tapes
- Transcript of words recorded in shorthand or encoded form
- Produce document from computerised information.

Where Council is unable to grant access in the form you requested, you may be given access in a different form.

Refusal to Process Requests

Division 1, Section 18 of the Freedom of Information Act 1991 explains the circumstances under which Council may refuse or defer access to information.
